Fundraising Report

- a. Schwan's opportunity
- b. Grants - $20,000 pending
- c. Bergen's – to be contacted.
- d. Mike & Brenda Eidenschink presentation -
  - ◆ Brenda Eidenschink talked about score boards and handed out a packet of information and bids. Talked about a dinner, silent auction, live auction, raffles. Silent auction 100% profit toward lights and scoreboard.
  - ◆ Talked about selling flags with companies names on them and the company would pay or purchase for each flag. They would be hung at the soccer fields. We could get materials from Muscal (sp) Lighting.
  - ◆ Michele Baker and David Carter talked about concession stand food options and building needs. The group talked about how to get people to work the concession stand too. Another idea was to have just vending machines.

- ◆ Justin talked about a powerade display at the sign-up, from Coke. Then Coke would donate those monies to our club. They would also like to bid on stuff for concession stand.
- ◆ Mike Eidenschink talked about the electrical power on the soccer complex. He'll make sure there's enough power on site for lights, scoreboard, and concessions.
- ◆ It was brought up to possibly pay for the scoreboards with field funds and donations this year, then sell Bergen's coupons better this year and have a banquet dinner in the fall for lights next year.
- ◆ Talked about having a donation bucket at the entrance stand too. Also have a "donation needle" posted somewhere at the soccer complex.
- ◆ Motion by Michele Baker: Approve putting in 2 scoreboards, with 1 board being donated and our club purchasing the 2nd board. Second by Kyle Neumeister. Approved.
- ◆ M
